Dear Dick:

Thank you so much for your kind letter of November 17. It was our pleasure to be with you for the Herald of Truth workshop. We appreciate so much what you and Bro. Havens are doing for the program in your area.

The Central congregation is a lighthouse for other churches throughout the Northwest and across the country. We deeply appreciate the things being done by that congregation and know that your leadership means a great deal to all these good works. We send you our prayers and best wishes.

Thank you so much for the continuing support you give to the Herald of Truth.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
